ANOTHER MILESTONE

With this week's issue, the Advocate proudly embarks upon its 77th year of continuous publication. The New Year is always a "new year" to the Advocate and for the 3900th time our newspaper wishes fellow Arlingtonians a Happy, Prosperous and Peaceful New Year. We shall continue to provide our readers with the kind of news they want to hear—news of their neighbors and friends—tips for the taxpayers and the local personal features that make the hometown paper the heartbeat of a community. We strive for fairness and accuracy—we favor none, welcome all. We keep an open mind and present both sides of issues that concern our readers. But most of all, as any real good paper should believe, we want you to know that Johnny's birthday party or Mary's wedding, or the new baby at your house are items more important to us than the most world-shaking event, political or social. No princess getting married gets more attention than a local girl for whom the wedding bells ring. Your joys are our joys, your sorrows are our sorrows, your problems are our problems. We are boastful that the Advocate is Arlington-owned, managed and published. The same Arlington family has owned and operated the paper since it was founded. It is a pleasure to keep on reporting the news you want to read, for 1948 and many more years to come.

A LIGHT IN THE WINDOW

With the holiday season many homes in our community and throughout the country have observed the traditional custom of lighting their windows. This is New Year's Day and many of those gleaming electric candles will be lighted again tonight for the last time. Tomorrow they will be packed away to be used again next year. But we say to you, "Don't let the light in your window go out." We mean the light of hope in the window of America that shines across the seas to the starving, pitiful and desperate multitudes of Europe. Make your New Year's resolution to back the Marshall Plan most wholeheartedly and to help in whatever way you can as an individual or as part of a group to make 1948 the beginning of a new life for a war-torn, grief-stricken world. These are real people just like you, begging for daily bread and clothes to keep them warm. Write to your senators and congressmen and urge them to support the Plan. Cooperate with the voluntary food-saving program of your Citizens' Food Committee to save 100 extra million bushels of grain we could spare if our supply is used wisely. A starving child has no race nor religion. Any people crushed beyond the depths of misery need that light of hope that only we can give them. So keep the light in your window—the light of friendship, understanding and aid to your fellow men—the light in the window of a world dark with despair.

Arlington in Review

[Reprinted from the Files of the Arlington Advocate.]

IN 1877

70 Years Ago This Week

Early Friday morning the threatened snow began to fall and it continued through the day, making possible sleighing though only a few inches fell. At night it turned to rain, making the travelling very bad. We shall have to put this down as the first regular snowstorm of the season.

The Wm. Penn Company which now have charge of Hose No. 3, is preeminently social, nor is their sociability confined to themselves. On several occasions they have thrown open their doors and entertained a large company but the most pleasant of all was that held on New Year's Eve. The hall was very tastefully decorated with flags and streamers, and one end was embellished with pipes, butts, spanners and other fire implements arranged very tastefully. Over a picture of Penn was the neatly painted motto: "Like our namesake Wm. Penn, We'll do our duty by our fellow men."

An effective and truly representative display of American industries at the approaching Paris Exposition, will be true to be among the earliest solicitudes of Congress.

IN 1897

Fifty Years Ago This Week

Back to school on Monday. The skating in Spy Pond has furnished an unusual amount of sport for many of the vacationists and one and all agree that the weather has, this year, smiled upon the Christmas vacation.

The Arlington Choral Club will in the future meet regularly every Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. W. B. Robinson, 25 Academy street. His parlors are nicely formed and arranged for singing, and for the size of the chorus will be much more social and fully as centrally located to accommodate the club.

The regular meeting of the Arlington Debating Society was held last Wednesday evening. The subject for debate was: "Resolved That the United States should Recognize the Independence of Cuba."

The Hon. Joseph S. Potter, former citizen of Arlington and Senator, as well as ex-consul general at several points in Germany, but now residing in Germersburg, Va., where he has an elegant taste, sends us this week his annual subscription to the Advocate, accompanied with a letter of congratulations on our 25th anniversary of publication. He says in part, "I know of no other public journal whose work has been confined alone to the field of local information and home interests, that has so steadily progressed in usefulness and prosperity, as the Advocate."

IN 1922

25 Years Ago This Week

Among the leading matters before the 1922 Legislature will be that of some solution of the traffic and transportation problems of Metropolitan Boston—particularly on the highways and street railways. Everyone who rides in an automobile or a street car in the district realizes the congestion is getting more and more serious. The Boston Chamber of Commerce has recently prepared a report which it believes offers a practical solution. (Editor's Note: Could it be that a car mired in Boston traffic 25 years ago is still awaiting this solution? The car model may have changed but not the problem.)

Sgt. John Duffy fairly jumped out of his seat Tuesday at 1:40 a. m. at Police Headquarters. Sergeant Duffy is an old timer at the police business and is usually steady going, but the telephone message made him pinch himself to see if he was not dreaming. The message was that an electric car had been stolen from the carmen at the Heights and the thieves were rolling merrily down the avenue on their way to Boston. At Grove street two young men jumped out and got away, abandoning the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Pierce, 45 Grafton street, observed their 25th wedding anniversary at their home with a combination anniversary and New Year's Party.

The annual Christmas party for the children of St. Agnes' parish was held in the lower church on Friday afternoon. Upward of 500 children attended and enjoyed a very pleasing program.

SEAL SALE SUCCESS

Mr. Harry T. Fox, chairman of the Arlington Tuberculosis Committee, expresses his gratitude to the residents of Arlington for their generous support of the 1947 Christmas Seal Sale. "Latest returns show a continued interest here in the drive to wipe out tuberculosis," said Mr. Fox. "Unlike many other campaigns for financial support no quota has been set but we hope and expect to exceed the fine record of last year. As in the past the money raised will be used for approved tuberculosis control programs of health education, case finding and rehabilitation in Arlington and throughout Middlesex County."

Gerry Powers of 16 Newton road was a contestant on Jim Britt's sport program over Station WHDH Saturday morning, December 20, and received a photo flash camera as a prize.

ever, that in this period of high living costs, the present benefit can be as do benefits that workers may receive who retire from employment. Nevertheless, the present limitations of Social Security benefits in the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program do not obscure the fact that these benefits are a potential force in aiding approximately half of the nation. It has been shown by statistics that there are thousands of widows who with the aid of these Old-Age and Survivors Insurance benefits have been able to keep their homes intact and bring their children up as good Americans.

Harassed Housewives Give Vote of Thanks To Arlmont Laundry

"Oh, I can't bear the thought of facing wash day this week!"
is the harassed housewife's cry as the winter breezes blow the snow across the already chilled and frosted windowpanes of her kitchen.

Why think about wash day
and why face it in weather like this? You don't have to shiver beneath the ice-coated clothesline as your cold hands become numb with each garment you try to hang on that line. All you have to do is follow the example of other wise homemakers and bring your laundry (or better still, have hubby deliver it) to the Arlmont Laundry, located at 785 Massachusetts avenue, corner Mill street.

This modern laundry plant is in an ideal location and has the very latest in up-to-date equipment. Five different services are offered, including the Family unshod bundle, Flat and shirts, Straight flat, Straight shirts and Dry cleaning of suits, dresses, etc. An additional service is the Shirtings which includes turning collars and hemming cuffs, collars and cuffs and short sleeved shirts. The new Bachelor service which includes a complete wash and ironing service for students and bachelors has gained popularity in Arlington. Further information may be obtained by calling AR 5-1110 or

visiting the Arlmont Laundry
at 785 Massachusetts avenue.
The Arlmont Laundry is open
from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m., 7 days
a week. It is a place where you can get your laundry done
right and on time.

Manning Station K O's Ole Man Winter Aids Auto Owners

Another car coming along Massachusetts avenue, radiator steaming, engine putt-putting.
Winter weather and the last two snowstorms have been terrific hazards and headaches for motorists! Yet, the owner of this car does not seem to register too much concern. We pause in wonder and finally understand. He turns into the large driveway at 880 Massachusetts avenue and there, Tom Manning, owner of Manning's Super Sunoco Station,
takes over. In no time at all,
said motorist is beaming the proverbial broad grin of pleasure—and why not? He is one of the smarter motorists who knows where an automobile will be serviced to satisfaction.

Service is not the only by-word at Manning's. All types of automobile accessories are on hand just in case you have motor trouble. "You don't have to go all the way to Boston for tires," says Tom Manning, who sells top rate, high quality tires at remarkably satisfactory prices.
It is wise to remember, especially during this bitter cold weather and through the other seasons of the year, that the know-how of servicing is just as important as the quality of the parts. Manning's Super Sunoco Station is open for pick-up, delivery or mail order. It is a place where you can get your car serviced right and on time.

Further information may be obtained by calling AR 5-1110 or
visiting the Arlmont Laundry
at 785 Massachusetts avenue.
The Arlmont Laundry is open
from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m., 7 days
a week. It is a place where you
can get your laundry done
right and on time.

On Lehigh Sextet

Lehigh University, a newcomer to the ranks of collegiate hockey, will send a twelve-man squad to Clinton, N. Y., on New Year's Day, when Hamilton College celebrates the 25th anniversary of its indoor rink. Coach Charles Simmons, whose major assignment at Lehigh is teaching chemical engineering, will field his seventh team since 1937 against Hamilton on January 1, when the three-day tournament opens. The next day, the Brown and White pucksters will meet Middlebury, and conclude their stay January 3 meeting Norwich.

Led by Luke Mackay, Neshanic, N. J. senior, the Lehigh Club will use Tom Cashman and Charlie Rowntree, two local boys, in the forward line.

Sugar Bowl Football

Game on WCOP Jan. 1

The New Year's Day Sugar Bowl Football classic will be broadcast over WCOP, Thursday, January 1, 1948, at 2:30 p. m. The play-by-play account of this annual New Orleans football game will be given by Harry Wismer, ABC's Director of Sports. The contenders this year are the University of Alabama and the University of Texas.

NEW HOOP LEAGUE

A new basketball league is now being formed and will conduct its games in the Junior High East gym Friday evenings, starting at 6 p. m. Last Monday Mr. Fusco of the High School called a meeting for all boys who wanted to join. Close to 40 boys turned out.

The teams are the Tigers, Pirates, Yankees, Indians, Braves and Giants. In opening games the Pirates beat the Braves, 30-30, with Speed Ekstrom doing most of his team's scoring. The Tigers beat the Yankees, 25-11, scoring two unassisted goals in with Whitey Derosa and Jack Hough dividing the scoring honors, while the Braves beat the Giants.

ARLINGTON SEXTET STAVES OFF STONEHAM SURGE FOR 6-3 WIN

Joe Shea and Brad Donovan Lead Attack on Out-classed Foe. Two Newcomers Make Outstanding Debuts. Red and Gray Offense Clicks on Important Rushes. Campbell Starter as Goalie.

The high flying Arlington High sextet showed the class and beat the Stoneham goatie cleanly. The second period saw Buddy Kiniry scoring from passes from Donovan and Shea, a very pretty sight. Then George Robsen hit the strings with a 30-footer after taking a rebound from the backboards. Bill Leary went off with the only penalty of the period.

The third period was one of the most hectic seen in the Boston Arena in a long time. The period opened with Joe Shea scoring two unassisted goals in the space of a minute and a half. Both of Shea's scores were of masterful calibre, showing the fitness and quality of long experience. Then the Stoneham machine started to roll, with the Manley brothers in high gear, and before the period ended, three goals had been pumped into the Arlington net. Coach Eddie Burns sent in Egan. Campbell got a great hand from the Arlington fans. With the score 5 to 3, the Red and Gray fought back, with Brad Donovan taking

Boys' Club Tops Legion

In Close Game, 66-58

Last Saturday night, the Boys' Club and the Legion Post No. 39 played one of their traditionally exciting games on the Boys' Club court. The Boys' Club led for the entire game, but their lead was kept very small by the dogged defensive play of the Legionnaires. The score at the half was 32-25, in favor of the Boys' Club.

The veteran Boys' Club five moved the ball around at times faster than any Arlington team has ever done. Their timing seemed to be a little off at times. Five different times a player shook himself loose, but a faulty pass caused him to lose a basket. Joe Keohane was hot during the first half for the Boys' Club, throwing in six field goals. Bill Mulcahy threw in five field goals for the Legion in the first half.

The ten minute rest during the halves rejuvenated the Legion as they started the second half with three fast field goals to draw within one point of the Club. Then Walter Donnelly tapped in a basket, and "Shrimp" Ahern started throwing them in with his favorite hook shot and the Boys' Club took a comfortable lead. The Legion could have certainly used their two absentees. The Legion was forced to play the entire game with only six players.

Dinny Shea was the outstanding player for the Legion. His defensive play stood out like the best game for the Boys' Club, Rock of Gibraltar, and half kept full to watch. field goals in the last half kept full to watch. his team in the game. ## ALL HAIL TO THE NEW YEAR

"Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow;
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true."

—Alfred Tennyson

As the glad bells peal out at the stroke of midnight to mark the passing of the old year and the arrival of the new, we pause for a moment to express our appreciation for the confidence, friendship and good will which have been extended to us during

LEGION POST 39 PRACTICES WHAT IT PREACHES

Members of Arlington Legion Post 39 are again proving that they practice what they preach when they talk about being good neighbors and promoting world friendship.

They are proudly displaying a receipt for a generous donation made to the Yankee Friendship Fund which is sending a ship of supplies to the people of Scotland. The post reminds the people of Arlington that due to the storm the ship has been delayed and there is still a chance to make a contribution to this worthy cause. These may be sent to Allan Forbes, Treasurer, State Street Trust Company, in Boston.

Post 39 is believed to be the only organization of its kind which has taken this action. Their efforts in other causes have also been noteworthy. They were the first veterans organization in this area to make a contribution to the Friendship Train, and also gave a ton of flour to Archbishop Cushing's Fund.

The recent Good Neighbor program held by the post on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor Day has received much favorable comment. A letter has been received by the post from Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers, a speaker on the program, complimenting the post on its inspiring exercises.

Major Ward to be At Legion Post

Major Reginald Ward, USMC, will be the speaker on January 13 at Legion Post 39, Legion Hall, 370 Massachusetts Avenue. Major Ward has been assigned to Arlington by Robert Cutler, chairman of the National Security Committee, and his topic will be, "National Security". This is a most important subject to every thinking citizen of the post-war world. Major Ward is noted for his work in dropping needed supplies to the mere missions in China during the war. Here he ran up against Communism in action when it was discovered that the bundles were being picked up by Communist bands, depriving needy people and mission workers of the food and clothing intended for them. Major Ward's experience with Communists at work is from first hand observation on two continents.

The meeting will be open to the public from 8:45 to 9:30 p. m.

Day-Lowe Wedding

quet was of spicy white carnations. She was given in marriage by her father, Samuel Dodge Cole.

The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Weidel of Belmont, Miss Barbara Bonnell of Winchester, and the Misses Rosamonde and Natalie Cole of Beverly. The latter are cousins of the bride.

Two of the bridesmaids wore sea-green moire taffeta and two wore raspberry taffeta. All had matching mitts and headbands and carried unusual cascade bouquets of white carnations with centers of holly.

Junior High School West

Three assemblies were necessary to give all pupils at Junior High School West an opportunity to enjoy the Christmas Play given under the direction of Miss Milred Emerson, with make-up by Miss Merina V. Morrisette. A distinct challenge to the youthful actors was the lack of proper scenery, since the hall is in use every night. Crayon sketches of buildings upon the bare wall were drawn by members of the Art Club, under the supervision of Miss Agnes V. Hurley. The "Beggars' Charity" by Frank J. Jones is a dimly lighted street scene in an old English town.

The following program was presented on Friday to Grade 7 and on Tuesday to Grades 8 and 9. Gym classes were interrupted to enable pupils to enjoy this Yuletide program.

1. Carol "Joy to the World" first and second stanzas by entire audience.
2. Bible Reading — St. Luke, Chapter 2, verses 8-14.
3. The Lord's Prayer.
4. Carol "Silent Night", all three stanzas by entire audience.
5. A One-Act Christmas Play, "Beggars' Charity" by Frank J. Jones.

Cast as follows:

1st beggar, John Shea; 2nd beggar, Richard Keshian; 3rd beggar, John Mullin; Mother Whitesleeves, Marilyn Price; The Baker's Wife, Shirley Seabury; 1st youth, John Holmes; 2nd youth, Richard Bean; nobleman, Lane Gorton; messenger, Bernard Rivers.

6. A Christmas Message by Mr. A. Henry Ottoson. Richard Toner, president of the Eighth Grade, presented.

Junior Woman's Club

The Arlington Junior Woman's Club entertained the Blind Circle at their annual Christmas party on Saturday afternoon, December 20. A musical program was given by Miss Jean Sullivan accompanied by Mary Carter, a member of the Arlington Senior Woman's Club. Refreshments were served by a committee under the chairmanship of Eleanor Beck.

The board meeting was held on Monday evening December 22 at the home of Miss Eleanor Beck. The next regular meeting of the Club will be held Monday evening, January 5, at the Robbins Memorial Library Hall.

First Baptist Church in

Crusade for Christ

Last Sunday, December 28, the First Baptist Church joined with the other churches of the Northern Baptist Convention in the Crusade for Christ Through Evangelism, which will continue until May of 1949. Rev. Nathan W. Wood, pastor, preached the Enrollment Sermon, "The Gospel of Another Chance" at this first service, and the Crusade will continue with the Planning Conference scheduled for the first four Friday evenings of January and Sunday, February 8th will be observed as "Commitment Sunday". The Crusade is under the leadership of Paul Smith, general chairman, with Miss Carol Higgins, Robert Foye, Mrs. Lawrence Aulback, Miss Margaret Alsen, Albert S. Brown and Murray Wyman as chairmen of the sub-committees.

In most attractive costumes, the girls sang Christmas carols with Gail Matheson at the piano. Audrey Regut, Joyce Sharkey and Janet Smith entertained with piano selections. Janet Smith also gave a violin solo. The girls presented their mothers with gifts of their own handcraft after which they exchanged gifts among themselves. Mrs. McSorley presented each girl with a Birthday Fortune Telling book. Delicious sandwiches, cake and tea were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Dorothea Josephson of Lexington, a sponsor.

The girls made the sandwiches and cake as well as planned the program in order to earn the Wood Gatherers and Fire Makers ranks.

The Camp Fire Leaders' Association held its Annual meeting and Christmas party in the Dallin Branch Library with Miss Gertrude Redmond, chairman, presiding. A social hour with exchange of gifts and sandwiches, cake and tea served by the hospitality committee followed the business meeting.

Third: Mrs. David Sheehan and Mrs. Hardid Ring.

JUNIOR HIGH CENTER

The Christmas Assembly at Junior High Center was presented in the school auditorium by the pupils of Home Room 1 on Tuesday, December 23rd. A unique feature of this year's assembly was the reading before the singing of each carol. To many pupils the origin of the more popular carols was unknown, but this was explained, with other interesting sidelights about the carol, before it was sung by the Junior High Center Glee Club. It proved to be a most interesting and instructive program.

Following is a copy of the program:

1. Bible Selection, Lord's Prayer by Robert Card; Salute to the Flag.
2. The First Christmas Carol sung by Sue Clark.
3. Reading by Margaret Carney; O Come, O Come Emmanuel, Glee Club.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"God" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 4. Golden Text: "Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, and his redeemer the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God" (Isaiah 44:6).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. To him which led his people through the wilderness, for his mercy endureth for ever" (Psalms 136:1, 16). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Step by step will those who trust Him find that 'God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble'.... The history of Christianity furnishes sublime proofs of the supporting influence and protecting power bestowed on man by his Heavenly Father, omnipotent Mind, who gives man faith and understanding whereby to defend himself, not only from temptation, but from bodily suffering" (pp.444, 387).

Town Topics

A. Francis Knight of the American Airlines office in New York City was at home for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Fletcher Knight, 11 Tanquer street.

Faculty and Council Party

At Academy of Music

The faculty members and advisory council of the Arlington Academy of Music had a most pleasant holiday gathering at the school last Sunday evening. A faculty meeting was followed by supper and an evening of impromptu entertainment. Several advanced students at the school provided musical selections. A professional story-teller was also a novel feature that was greatly enjoyed.

Among those present were the following members of the advisory council: Leonard Wood, founder of the Academy, and Mrs. Wood; Frank Bill, director of music for radio station WEI; Mrs. Reginald Pierce of the Boston and Lexington Society of Arts and Crafts; Mrs. Harold B. Wood, past music chairman of the state federation of Women's Clubs; Walter Mayo, director of music in the Watertown public schools, and Mrs. Mayo, and Joseph Bevins of the Arlington School Committee.

TOWN'S PEOPLE

met many famous personages. It was then that she began her famous collection of elephant miniature and reproductions which now numbers over 400 choice pieces and threatens to overflow her charming home.

Until two years ago she was a business woman. In addition to her stay in the State House she held two other absorbing different positions—one in the District Attorney's office in East Cambridge under D. A. Bushnell, and the other as confidential secretary to one of Boston's most important financiers.

Then, her husband, a consulting engineer, persuaded her to stay home and act as a combination homemaker and secretary for him. At first she didn't believe that she would like it but she has turned her house into a fitting setting for herself and Mr. Bedell. He is a famed and hospitable host and his pretty wife is a gracious hostess to their many friends. The other member of the family is a gorgeous black cat, "El Capitan", who can perform tricks in a superior but aloof manner and is waiting to capture a ribbon at the next Boston Cat show.

Mrs. Bedell, while in Cambridge was president of the Young Women's Republican Club, member of the Republican City Committee, secretary of her ward committee, and a member of the Cantabrigia Club. She was active in several state-wide organizations as a lieutenant in the Massachusetts Women's Defense Corps, and the Massachusetts Young Women's Republican Council.

Hats became her hobby when a co-worker invited her to attend a millinery class at the Boston Center of Adult Education. Always noted for her fashionable wardrobe and possessing the usual feminine love for hats, she was the pride of her surprised in-country and abroad. Lived for six months in Scotland, her parents' birthplace and once conducted a travel tour of 35 people to the West Coast and back.

So if you see a pretty lady around town sporting the very latest in millinery, it's probably Mollie Bedell, for hats are her hobby and a most worthwhile one, too.
